Resource Teacher: Learning and Behaviour (RTLB)

RTLB are appointed by the lead school/kura principal/tumuaki. An RTLB must be a New Zealand fully-registered teacher/kaiaiko with a current practising certificate. The position is a full-time role.

Role
The RTLB service and the Ministry’s Learning Support service work together with other services to provide seamless service provision to improve the education system’s support for and responsiveness to children and young people with learning support needs. RTLB have an essential role to play supporting students with substantial barriers to learning, and building teacher and school inclusive practice capability.

The RTLB role, scope of practice, professional principles, practice sequence and service outcomes are detailed in the RTLB Professional Practice Toolkit, http://rtlb.tki.org.nz/Professional-practice.

Responsibilities
RTLB are responsible for:
- providing the RTLB service in a cluster of schools in accordance with the RTLB Professional Practice Toolkit meeting the service priorities and expectations listed in the RTLB Funding Agreement
- maintaining casework records according to cluster protocols
- maintaining trusting, professional relationships within cluster Kāhui Ako, schools and with parents/whānau, communities and community agencies.

Qualifications
RTLB must hold the required RTLB qualification - the Post Graduate Diploma in Specialist Teaching endorsed in Learning and Behaviour issued by Massey/Canterbury universities, or one of the previous qualifications: the Post Graduate Diploma in Special Needs Resource Teaching (PG Dip SNRT), or the Post Graduate Certificate in Education Studies - both issued by the Auckland/Victoria/Waikato consortium of universities.

Unqualified RTLB appointees (including those who hold an historic exemption) must attain the Post Graduate Diploma in Specialist Teaching endorsed in Learning and Behaviour within 48 months of appointment to their first RTLB position.

Professional organisations
Many RTLB choose to belong to professional organisations. The cost of individual membership is at the discretion of the cluster.

RTLB require cluster manager approval for leave of absence to attend professional organisation meetings and conferences.
RTLH Job Description:

Description

A Resource Teacher: Learning and Behaviour (RTLH) may be based at a particular school but is employed by the board of trustees of lead school employer for the cluster. Purpose of the position

The role of the RTLH is to provide itinerant specialist support across the cluster to students and teachers, and work with families, in order to improve the education outcomes for students with moderate learning and/or behaviour difficulties. The role will include demonstrating practice, strategy or techniques so that:

- students receive appropriate learning programmes that cater for their diverse needs and learning goals and behaviour management on an ongoing basis
- teachers can use the skills they have acquired with these and other students with similar needs in an inclusive and unobtrusive manner.

Accountability

The RTLH will be accountable to the board of the employer school through the cluster manager.

Working relationships

The RTLH will:

- work with staff and students in the designated schools
- work with the Learning Support Coordinator (LSC), Special Education Needs Co-ordinator (SENCO) and any special needs committee in cluster schools
- work with the senior management team in cluster schools
- work closely with Learning Support (LS) staff
- work with other agencies such as Health
- in conjunction with the school and classroom teachers, liaise with students’ families.
Key tasks
The key tasks of a RTLB are to:

- work flexibly within a designated cluster of schools
- undertake operational procedures consistent with the agreed policies and needs of the cluster
- receive and process Requests For Service (RFS), as described in the cluster RFS process
- work collaboratively, within He Pikorua, an ecological model, with class teachers, relevant staff and LS to manage the behaviour and/or address the learning difficulties of a whole class, group, or individual students and
  - identify needs
  - set goals
  - implement intervention/s
  - monitor progress and assist teachers to adapt or implement programmes
  - review
  - record outcomes
- support teachers with assessment, analysis and evaluation
- report regularly to the cluster manager of the employer school detailing work undertaken and student outcomes
- support schools to refer students to other services when additional specialist advice or behaviour support is required
- keep appropriate records of all professional practice
- provide written reports that describe and provide a statistical analysis of work undertaken throughout the year
- where appropriate, support individual students for an agreed, brief period of time
- assist with transitions of designated students between classes and schools.

Person specification
The successful applicant must be a trained teacher with the full New Zealand teacher registration and a current practising certificate, and should have the following attributes, knowledge and skills:

- strong interpersonal and communication skills to allow for full and comprehensive consultation and effective teacher support
