

Job Description for a Fixed- Term Targeted Learning Programmes and Extension Programmes Teacher

Applicants need to:

Have recent successful classroom experiences across all levels of the school and have evidence of best practice teaching using current research- based pedagogy, including teaching as inquiry
Have successful experience with accelerating learning for target and priority students and extension programmes

Demonstrate an in depth knowledge of the Literacy and Maths curriculum areas

Be able to work collaboratively with classroom teachers and management

Be able to show growth and development in culturally responsive practice

Be a competent user of formative assessment practices

Be able to plan suitable programmes based assessment results, using best practice approaches.

Be able to analyse data to identify needs and inform teaching

Be able to build positive relationships with students, staff and parents/whanau

Be a proven effective communicator

Be willing to demonstrate an ethic of care for students actively using our school values

Be passionate about making a difference

Have high expectations for all students

Have had recent professional development in Maths and Writing

Have current experience using multiple Numeracy and Writing diagnostic and assessment tools

Support students to make connections to what they already know

Be able to keep accurate records including planning and assessments

Be flexible and able to respond to individual needs

Be able to select appropriate materials and strategies to help students learn

Be able to use relevant technology to support learning programmes

Model approaches for teachers and support staff