Person Specification

For: Scale A Teacher - Te Puna School - Level 1 Maori Immersion

The Board requires an enthusiastic, committed and forward thinking teacher to teach in Te Puna Matauranga.

The skills and personal attributes required for the position are:

Personal Attributes

- Lives the principles of Te Ao Maori
- Te Reo Fluency
- A drive and commitment to ensure that the best quality education is delivered to students
- High expectations of success and the ability to give effect to these expectations
- Good communication skills which result in well-informed students, staff and parents
- Ability to work effectively in a team environment and individually
- To be able to adopt and support our current philosophy and vision of the school
- Be able to embrace rural character of Te Puna School
- High level of energy and enthusiasm
- Role model qualities for students
- Ability and willingness to contribute to and utilize skills and strengths across the whole school
- Willingness to take participate fully in extra curricular activities
- Able to liaise effectively with feeder preschools
- Commitment to measurable personal and professional development.

Skills

- Collaborative
- Proven pedagogical knowledge and the ability to inspire and motivate students and staff in your areas of expertise
- Experience in implementation of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa
- A competent, experienced NZ trained teacher
- Demonstrate sound behaviour management strategies
- Demonstrated strong self-management skills including good time management, decision making and self control
- Ability to effectively use assessment data to inform practice
- Ability to use digital technologies and ICT as a tool to enhance learning
- Reflective practitioner, committed to ongoing PLD

Other skills and attributes that may be desirable in and applicant:

- Whole school Kapa Haka leadership / support
- Musical Ability - comfortable to lead singing / choir
- Sport / Multisport interests
- Strengths in Performing arts