Scale A Teaching Position - Permanent Job

Tēnā koe,

Thank you for your interest in joining our warm and demanding team at Winchester School Te Kura o Te Haonui.

Please find included:

- School description and information
- Job description
- Appointment criteria
- Application form

We are seeking a Confident, Creative and Connected educator that has excellent Communication skills and who can design learning opportunities for ākonga to develop these skills too.

We are also seeking a warm and demanding educator who will adopt and use our ngā uara/values to support learners to become the best version of themselves through respectful positive relationships and high expectations.

Winchester School Te Kura o Te Haonui is a contributing primary school of between 320 - 350 pupils. We are located near the Manawatū River on Ruahine Street in Hokowhitu, Palmerston North.

Our school enjoys great support from our community and has a strong family atmosphere, a positive school environment and rich cultural diversity.

Our classrooms showcase a variety of learning and a strong feature is artwork which is proudly displayed around our school. Our school is well resourced with spacious grounds, a turf area and gardens. A range of sporting and cultural opportunities are available and well supported by our parents. We have an active PTA and supportive Board of Trustees. All these features make Winchester School Te Kura o Te Haonui, the fantastic school that it is.

Please complete the application forms below and send it to principal@winchester.school.nz along with a covering letter and your Curriculum Vitae. The appointment panel looks forward to receiving your application.

Applications close on 11 November, 9am

Nic Mason
