TE KURA O OTANGAREI
TŪ PONO, TŪ TIKA, TŪ AROHA, TŪ RANGATIRA

Nau mai, haere mai ki Te Kura o Otangarei!
We are seeking a passionate and dedicated Kaiako Māori who embodies te reo Māori me ōna tikanga, and who is committed to nurturing the potential of our tamariki through meaningful relationships and culturally grounded teaching practices.

The successful applicant will:

- Build strong, respectful relationships with tamariki, whānau, kaiako and the wider community.
- Create a caring, inclusive and engaging learning environment where all tamariki thrive.
- Be competent in te reo Māori and confident in ngā tikanga Māori, ensuring these are woven throughout the daily life of our kura.
- Demonstrate flexibility and adaptability in supporting diverse learners and working collaboratively with colleagues.
- Show strong classroom management skills and the ability to connect with tamariki through ako – reciprocal learning.
- Embed te ao Māori and ngā mātāpono o Te Kura o Otangarei into planning, teaching and learning.

If this sounds like you send by email a cover letter outlining your strengths and skillset and current CV to office@otangarei.school.nz
