KIA ORA, WELCOME

Thinking about a move to Marlborough?

Thanks for your interest in teaching at Bohally Intermediate. Choosing a school is a big decision. If it means moving too, it's a bigger one.

This booklet shows you what life here is really like: the sunshine, the Sounds, the short commutes and a community that values its teachers. It also covers how we'll help you make the move.

If you'd like to talk it through, I'd be glad to hear from you.

THE OUTDOORS

More sun. More weekends.

Blenheim is regularly one of New Zealand's sunniest towns. Summers are long and dry, and winter days are crisp and clear. Some of the country's best outdoor spots are less than an hour away.

The Marlborough Sounds

Kayak, sail, fish, swim or stay at a bach on the water. Picton is about 20 minutes' drive away.

Queen Charlotte Track

One of New Zealand's best-known walking and biking tracks. Do a day section, or the whole thing over a long weekend.

Wither Hills

Walking, running and mountain-bike trails right at the edge of Blenheim. Ride after school and still be home for dinner.

Wine, food and events

New Zealand's biggest wine region, with cellar doors, local markets, and summer festivals and concerts.

AFTER THE BELL

A week in Marlborough

Short commutes and long evenings leave more time for life outside school. A week here could look like this.

- Monday — Ride the Wither Hills trails, straight from the edge of town.
- Tuesday — Coach a school sports team, or join a local club yourself.
- Wednesday — A summer-evening swim in the Sounds, with daylight to spare.
- Thursday — Home in minutes. No traffic, so the evening is yours.
- Friday — Dinner among the vines at one of the region's wineries.
- Saturday — Kayak Queen Charlotte Sound, or walk part of the track.
- Sunday — Local farmers' market, then a long lunch in the sun.

EVERYDAY LIFE

Room to breathe

Blenheim is big enough to have what you need and small enough that you're never stuck in traffic.

Homes you can afford

Your salary goes further than in the big cities, whether you rent or buy.

Minutes, not hours

Most of town is a few minutes' drive or a short bike ride from school.

A real community

A friendly, family-friendly town with clubs, sport and arts, and teachers are valued here.
